FARMERS ASK WILSON TO CHECK DISASTROUS PRICE DECLINE

Hold-Up Man Is Sentenced to 10 Years in Green Bay

24-YEAR OLD YOUTH ADMITS ATTACK ON LOCAL CONTRACTOR

SAYS HE WANTED ENOUGH MONEY TO GET TO CHICAGO.

HERE TWO MONTHS Had Worked for Northwestern Railroad—Hold-up Staged in First Ward.

Charles Buchanan, 24, guntoter and hold-up man, must serve 10 years in the state reformatory at Green Bay.

This was the sentence pronounced on him late yesterday afternoon by Judge H. L. Maxfield when he was arraigned in municipal court on the charge of holding up Con. J. Hayes, contractor, at the point of a .32 calibre revolver.
He waived trial and entered a plea of guilty.

Is Broken Up

In a cell at the county jail today awaiting to be taken to Green Bay
by Sheriff Fred Ebel, Buchanan was downcast. He is broken up over the prospect of spending the next decade in a penal institution.

With his lips quivering, he told yesterday of his decision to commit the rash act.

"I had some money coming in from Chicago and wanted to get enough for road fare down there," he said.
"I didn't intend to kill the man. I brought the gun with me when I came to Janesville two months ago."

Lives in Dayton

The hold-up was staged in the first ward Saturday evening as Mr.
Hayes was going to his home. Rather than yield to the extortion, he threw his hands, he struck at his assailant and in the melee which followed, Buchanan escaped. He was arrested on the charge of hold-up later by Officer James Ward.

Buchanan's home is in Dayton, O.
He had been working here at the C. & N. W. yards.

COUGHLIN BABE'S FATE IS ASSURED

Pasquale Who Smothered Lad
Charged With Other Murders.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Philadelphia, Oct. 13.—Satisfied that the mystery of the kidnaping on June 2, of Blackie Coughlin, the 13 months old son of George H.
Coughlin, Norristown, has been cleared up by the confession of Alfons Pasquale, the authorities today began preparation of their case against the "crank."

Mr. Coughlin also said he felt the case had been cleared up, and was very much relieved, he declared. "The suspense of living the rest of my life without the sure knowledge of the fate of my boy is settled. I am glad it is over."

Body Is Not Found.
Although Pasquale, according to Major Adams, head of the state police, confessed he smothered the child, he was found yesterday by a diver at the spot pointed out by Pasquale as the place where he threw the body. Evidence of a fire nearby, which said he had also said to have confessed to killing a man in a saloon here several months ago.

CHARGED WITH OTHER MURDERS.

In addition to the kidnaping and slaying of the Coughlin boy, Pasquale also will be charged with the murder in Philadelphia on June 2 of Mrs. Rose Asherman, who conducted a rooming house. He told Major Adams he killed Mrs. Ash-erman when a piece of slate. He also is said to have confessed to killing a man in a saloon here several months ago.

J. M. WHITEHEAD SUPPORTS M'COY IN GOVERNOR RACE

ROCK COUNTY REPUBLICAN LEADER IN STIR-RING LETTER REPU-DIATES BLAINE.

NOT REPUBLICANS Former Senator Says Blaine and His Companions Have No Call for Republican Support.

Hon. John M. Whitehead, for 15 years member of the state senate from this district and known in every part of the state as a leader of republicanism, has publicly repudiated the candidacy of John J. Blaine for governor, and the other members of the nonpartisan league on the ticket in Wisconsin. He did this in a letter addressed to Charles E. Morgan, chairman of the Morgan meeting at the Apollo theater last night.

Former Senator Whitehead was to have spoken at the meeting but it was necessary to be absent from the city, he being in attendance at the meeting of the general board of delegates of the Wisconsin Congregational church at Marietta, O., this week.

Mr. Pierce read the letter to the audience and its reading was frequently punctuated with applause.
The letter follows:

"Definite and Striking Issue
When I promised to speak at the Morgan meeting I understood the date to be Oct. 21. Now that the date is changed to Oct. 12 I am perpetrating a long standing engagement away from home on that date.
I am very sorry not to be able to attend but I have no alternative.
I am sure that the republican party of this county to welcome Mr. Morgan, our candidate for attorney general, and to hear him speak will be glad to have me join them in this state. Mr. Morgan's success clearly shows that nothing can be gained by any candidate by pussling the republican party. It is a fight between the republican party and the state. The republican party is fighting qualities who can rally about footing in this campaign. It is a fight between the republican party and the state. It is in my judgment Mr. Morgan is that leader."

Cold Snap Due Here By Last of Week

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Washington, Oct. 13.—Warning of another cold snap, with northern and middle sections of the country within a few days will be given out today by the weather bureau in a special bulletin which said:
"The indications at this time are that the prolonged spell of exceptionally high weather over the middle-western, and western states will shortly end. A disturbance of widespread influence is moving east, southward along the southern Alaskan coast and its influence will be felt on the Washington and Oregon coast within the next 24 to 36 hours, where it will be attended by rains and gales. It will cross the middle west at the end of the week attended by unsettled weather and rain and with a probability of local snows in the northwest."
Following this disturbance the temperature will fall and the coldest weather of the season, up to this time, will prevail generally in the northern and middle sections of the country.

NEW "GAS" STATION OPENS NEXT WEEK

The new service station of the Standard Oil company at the corner of Milwaukee and Adams streets will open for business next Monday.
It was formerly the site of the First Christian church.

Two large pumping stations for distilling kerosene oil have been installed in the center of the property with driveways approaching it from both streets. Two lamp posts will be installed, and the entrance to the entrances to the driveways. Another lamp at the street curb denotes the place where the motorist should stop to fill up.

Due to the increasing business of the station at St. Lawrence avenue and Adams street, a new pump is being installed and another driveway is being made to accommodate the customers. A gravel path is being laid out. Lamps are to be installed at the entrances of the driveways.

TWO CARS DERAILED, HINDERING TRAFFIC

Two gondola cars, loaded to capacity with sand and gravel were wrecked at 5 o'clock this morning while being hauled near the St. Paul and Chicago depot. The cars left the track at the intersection of the tracks of the C. & N. W. and St. Paul and Chicago. The cars were derailed owing to the terrific strain of 100 tons and poor ties in the track. It was said.

It was not until 10 o'clock that the tracks were cleared after a wrecking crew of 35 men had been at work since the accident. Trains had to be re-routed.

REVOLT IN PEKING TO RESTORE MONARCH TO THRONE, REPORT

DOWNFALL OF PRESIDEN-TIAL REGIME AT HANDS
OF GEN. TSO-LIN,
IS RUMORED.

NO CONFIRMATION Story of Coup Is Not Yet Auth- enticated; Federal General Ends Life.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Shanghai, Oct. 12.—General
Chang Tso-Lin, governor of Feng-tien, has overthrown the Peking government and proclaimed a monarchy, according to a rumor current here. This rumor has not been authenticated and no details have been received here, but Chinese officials have been profoundly stirred.

General Chang Tso-Lin was probably the strongest military leader during the recent conference between the Chi-Li and Anhui parties. He played a leading part during that trouble and was accused of being a tool of the Japanese.

It is the supposition here that the Coup, if it has taken place, is an effort to restore to the throne former Emperor Hsuan-Tung, son of Prince Chun.

General Lishun commander of Chinese government troops and leader of a powerful political clique, committed suicide today by shooting himself. The text of his will declared his action was due to development of a pro-war basis of private measures he had advocated for the "salvation of the nation."

Report Is Doubtful.
In connection with the lack of authentication of the Shanghai rumor may be noted that last night a message was received from Peking, dated October 12, the same on which the cablegram was sent.
The Peking message contained no hint of governmental complications.

The president of the Chinese republic is Hsu Shih-Chang, who was elected August 19 and inaugurated in October of that year.
The cabinet, formed August 11, of this year is headed by Chin Tun-Chieh, as premier and minister of war.

GIGANTIC WHISKEY RING IS EXPOSED

Chicago, Oct. 13.—A reported confession to the federal authorities of all the "inside" ramifications of a gigantic whiskey ring, said to have been made by William J. Sadler, former New York stock broker and "brains" of the ring, last night threw Chicago's liquor circles into consternation.

Named in the alleged confession were John J. McLaughlin, once a member of the Illinois state legislature; Glenn Haskett, Chicago formerly; J. J. Foster, Chicago excise commissioner; Charles Janett, owner of the Roamer Inn, One Hundred and Twenty-third street, Chicago, and distillery of Louisville, Ky., and E. C. Kennedy, a clerk in the distillery.

DISCUSS NEEDS OF PUBLIC SCHOOLS
Parent-Teachers' Organizations
Now Active in Nearly Every Part of City.

By MRS. ABBIE HELMS.
A program adopted to the practical needs of the city schools was given at the meeting of the Parent-Teachers' organization of the Grant and Washington schools held Tuesday afternoon in the Grant building. There were about 50 mothers in attendance, evenly divided between Grant and Washington districts.

The top of discussion was the sub-normal or retarded child and a survey of the situation in the Janesville schools, showing that in all the grades there are about 150 retarded boys and 125 girls. She said that this is a class of sub-normal pupils who can never learn any but the simplest things. Of these there are 13 boys and 8 girls. There is a study no and place to send these children, and they must be kept in school, so they are kept in the grades, to their own discouragement and the general discouragement of efficiency of the schools. The money spent for their education, at the present system, is almost wasted, she believed.

Separate Instruction Urged.
Mrs. F. P. Sutherland, in a carefully prepared paper, presented the idea of the opportunity schools. "The way to attack this problem," she said, "is to divide the pupils into groups, so that each can receive individual help from a competent teacher. In this way many of the backward pupils could be brought up to grade and with confidence in their former classes. If this is not done they soon drop out altogether. The small percentage who are really sub-normal could have their individual capabilities studied and taught some handicraft so they could become self-respecting citizens. Class rooms with special apparatus must be provided for this purpose, and also teachers with special training in the needs of the pupils in that line of work."

School Rights Asked.
A report of a committee on playgrounds headed by Mrs. C. E. Manning, man reported on the playgrounds in the Washington school grounds. They were asked to petition the city council for a street light in front of the school grounds for both buildings, and also ask the school board for better lighting inside the buildings.

Mrs. Arthur Fisher, president of this organization, with Mrs. E. E. Buckingham, vice president, Mrs. S. D. Grubb, secretary, and Mrs. M. B. Bond, treasurer, were present. The meeting was held on the evening of Sept. 24, at the Washington building, at which about 100 were present. Refreshments were served at the meeting.

Active in Second Ward.
At the Adams building the meeting of the Adams school district was held. Plans have been made to hold a fall picnic party on the evening of Oct. 27. For this function, for the first time, the mothers who are old enough to write little notes of invitation to their parents, thus giving them an exercise in composition. It is also planned to let the children design the decorations and as far as possible, make up the program. The officers of the Adams school district are: President, Frank Van der Kolk; vice-president, Miss E. Mae Clark; secretary, Mrs. J. R. Eggert; and treasurer, Mrs. J. R. Phipps.

This building has a problem to meet as it has many of the foreign population included in the district. There are at least five of the children who are not able to speak little English, but they are learning rapidly and life cooperation is given freely. It is noted that the card containing the American creed given by the women of the D. A. R. is prominently displayed in the upper rooms, and that the pledge of allegiance to the flag is a part of the regular curriculum of studies and is given on all patriotic occasions.

St. Mary's Makes Fund.
The Parent-Teachers' organization of the St. Mary's Parochial school has held some of its meetings, where a large number of mothers have been present. Showing that they are good mixers, several of them belong to the women of the St. Mary's as well. Just now they are holding a social afternoon so as to assist the financial budget of the school. The officers are: President, Mrs. Edward Connelley; secretary, Mrs. A. J. Pettit; and treasurer, Mrs. Glen Snyder.

Reception at Jefferson.
The organization at the Jefferson building has held some pleasant meetings and is planning a reception for fathers and mothers for Friday evening. There will be refreshments, music and other features, and refreshments. The idea of this branch has been to have a meeting in the evening for both fathers and mothers once in three months, and for mothers, once a month in the afternoon after school.

The Jackson Officers Elected.
The Jackson school district has elected officers as follows: President, Mr. John Vane, secretary, Mrs. Elizabeth Lister, and treasurer, Mrs. Louis Brummond. Several meetings were held last season and another one is planned for the near future. The group consists of the Douglas, Webster, Garfield and Lincoln buildings has not yet organized.

Blaine the One Big Hope of Nonpartisan League
To Carry Out Program

W. J. Morgan, the Fighting Candidate for Attorney General, Produces the Evidence of the Conspiracy to Capture the State for Townley Exploitation—First Meeting of the Campaign.

William J. Morgan, candidate for attorney general on the republican ticket, and with Henry Johnson, candidate for state treasurer, the only men on that ticket not supporting the nonpartisan league platform, spoke to an audience that comfortably filled the Apollo theater last night. He assailed the leaders of the nonpartisan league as an alien force coming to Wisconsin from North Dakota for the purpose of establishing the Townley program of state socialism here.

JUDGE ROBERT B. MCCOY
Candidate for Governor Who is Being Supported by R. Blaine.

League Plan in Wisconsin.
Mr. Morgan read from the Fargo, N. D., Courier-News, the official paper of the North Dakota nonpartisan league, showing that the league would attempt to carry out the program in Wisconsin.

Why the League Means Danger
Mr. Morgan spent some time in detailing the program of the nonpartisan league as shown by the records of legislation, banking and taxation in North Dakota. He made an appeal for the election of Senator Lenroot and spoke in highest terms of A. E. Matheson, republican candidate for assembly in the first district of Rock county. He declared that Dr. Ridgway, candidate for senator had been right, also, on the republican platform at the convention held at Madison. He closed with the statement that the only way for republicans in this campaign was to split the ticket to make it straight.

Charles F. Pierce was chairman of the meeting. Stephen Boies, editor of the Gazette, introduced Mr. Morgan. The Bower City band gave a concert before the meeting.

Evidence Is Here
"Here we have the evidence," said Mr. Morgan, "from an official source of the nonpartisan league, that the league intended to go farther than its platform and burden the state with its legislative program."

No Attack on Farmers
Mr. Morgan made it clear in his speech that he was making no attack on farmers, or on farmers' organizations in general, declaring that the league was trying to undermine our democratic institutions.

are trying to undermine the marriage relation—but there is no getting away from the positive proof that in North Dakota, certainly, the townley agents tried to do both of those very things.

Mr. Morgan recited the history of the platform convention in Madison, and showed that Blaine is not a regular republican and is not entitled to a place on the state ticket.

Notice to Blaine
"I sent word to him twice after the platform convention and before the republican state central committee meeting on October 1st that he had to choose whether he would wear Townley's colors indefinitely or stay with Towley now. On October first I insisted that he state his position to the state central committee, and that I be allowed to state mine. Mr. Blaine refused again to declare that he would stand on the republican platform."

Cannot Convert 70 Per-Cent
"I do not believe he can convert the other seventy per cent of Townleyism in three weeks," he declared, "especially when he insults the republicans of his state by bolting the republican platform and declaring that there is nothing in it inconsistent with the platform declarations of the democratic party on state issues."

Mr. Morgan pointed out that Blaine was nominated on the republican ticket by less than thirty per cent of the vote cast in the republican primary.

TRAINING SCHOOL

Complete Week of Cadet Work in Schools—Many Other Activities Listed.

Training school students have resumed their studies at the Jefferson school after spending a week in the rural schools of the county. Cadet work was done by the girls last week. All students spent a week visiting in country schools. Part of the time was spent in observation and part in actual teaching. During this time Prin. F. J. Lowth and Miss Ella Jacobson, supervising teacher, visited all the schools in which students were cadeting. This is the first year the students have done cadet work in the fall but this year two weeks are to be spent in the country, one in the fall and the other in the spring. The students are to aid the teacher in whose school they taught during the year and assisting her in preparing work for her pupils.

Plan Halloween Party.
A Halloween party will be the next social event at Training school. A committee has been appointed to plan for an entertainment, part of which is to be a play, "The Aunt from California," directed by Miss Ella Jacobson.

The October bulletin which is mailed to all county superintendents and principals in the state and all rural teachers in the county will be sent out within a few days. More than 1,000 copies are sent out every month. A report of the conference held at the training school Sept. 25 will be detailed in the bulletin.

Prin. Lowth and Miss Jacobson plan to attend the state teachers' convention at Milwaukee, Nov. 4, 5, and 6.

There are a few pupils this year who are taking work at the training school only part time. They are high school students who expect to finish high school this February.

Girls Study Elections.
Current events are a part of the regular course of study at training school this year. Especially in the winter elections the girls are getting posted on all the nominees.

Thirty-five schools have been visited this fall by Mr. Lowth and Miss Jacobson which is a record for fall visiting.

The training school now has every reading circle list. Just as soon as the list is revised, the new books are obtained by the school. More than 400 books are sent out to rural teachers from the school each year. Pictures and other material is also sent to aid the rural teachers.

A lantern device has been obtained by Mr. Lowth for his stereopticon lectures. A lecture was given Friday evening at the Footville school by Mr. Lowth whose subject was Yellowstone National park.

20 Schools Publish Papers.
Twenty school papers are now being published each week in the schools of the county. Rock county was the pioneer in publishing a school paper, Miss Cora Thorson having been the first teacher to supervise the printing of a rural school edition in Wisconsin.

Mr. Lowth will have a series of articles in the Wisconsin Journal of Education again this year. He maintained the rural school department of the magazine last year.

More Demonstration Work
More demonstration work is being done in the training school this year than ever before. Children of the model school are brought up to the training school while their teacher, Miss Luella Halverson demonstrates the training school students commenting on the work.

Miss Jacobson spoke at a mothers' meeting which was held recently at the school taught by Miss Ethel Moore at Indian Ford.

Ford
THE UNIVERSAL CAR

The Garden farmer will find the Ford Model T One Ton Truck an especially valuable factor in his business because of the flexibility as well as the reliability of the service given by this splendid truck. The worm-drive of manganese-bronze carries all the power of the motor to driving the Truck, and there are combined in larger and heavier form all the elements which have made the Ford Model T Car the greatest motor car in the world in point of service. The Ford Truck with its worm-drive is most economical in operation and maintenance. There is very little, if anything, to get out of order at any time; there is the simplicity in control; there is the convenience in the flexibility of the car, it will turn in a circle of forty-eight feet; it accommodates itself to narrow alleys, and it "stands the gaff" of hard work day after day, and month after month, to the great satisfaction of the owner. There is hardly a line of business activity where the Ford One Ton Truck is not really a necessity. Come in and talk it over.

'GOOD' TEETH DRIVE OPENS IN SCHOOLS

Free Treatment Offered to All Children Unable to Pay for Work.

Exciting things are happening at the Adams school building this week. The children are all interested. They are having their teeth examined and think it loads of fun. But let one of the pupils tell it.

"You see you come out into the upper hall of the building where there is a large window and good light, and you hand your card to Dr. G. B. Thuermer, dentist, at about 10 o'clock."

Miss Alice Glenn, who sits at a little table. She has a friendly manner and warm smile, and makes little marks on the card as the doctor tells her. He pokes around in your mouth with a funny little wooden paddle, and shakes his head gravely if you don't brush your teeth.

Like enough he tells you that you must brush them night and morning because you have a splendid set of teeth, and they should have good care.

Then if they are awful bad, Miss Glenn gives you a card to your mother, telling her you ought to take you to the dentist man, and get them fixed up."

The examinations have been going on during the month of October, and are about completed in this building. It is accomplished rapidly with an average of about 100 examinations during the forenoon.

While it is unusual to find a perfect set of teeth, yet conditions are not as bad as they were a few years ago. The free dental clinic was inaugurated. This is paid for by a fund from the city, supplemented by money from the City Federation for the children, and is in charge of a committee from that body.

Every effort is made to have parents who are able to do so, have their children's teeth attended to by the family dentist, but rather than have them neglected thus jeopardizing the child's health, they are done by the free clinic, by dentists employed for that purpose. Sometimes abscesses have been found and other conditions which must be remedied at once. Miss Glenn is to do follow up work, and if families are not financially able to have work done for the children's teeth she will see that they go to the clinic.

Her office at the city hall is open from four to five each day and on Saturday forenoons, and she is eager to give helpful suggestions to mothers and wholesome advice on care of the children. It is noted in almost every instance that young children and good teeth go together, and that the little lad, with legs like pipe stems is apt to have unsound teeth. Sometimes hints on nutrition by Miss Glenn will help along the general health, and so build up the teeth. She is at the service of the community, and is anxious to help wherever needed. The other school buildings will be visited in turn.

The entire lot of household goods of MacLean sisters will be sold on Friday and Saturday, Oct. 15 and 16, commencing at 1:00 P. M., from the home in East side Kan.

Mrs. Edward Ruger, 1002 Mineral point avenue, has gone to New York city, to make her home for the winter with her son, Dr. A. Edgar Ruger, professor at Columbia university.

She was accompanied by Miss Mary Seidelovska, who will spend the winter at the Rucker home.

13 NEW HOUSES ARE COMPLETED IN THIRD WARD; MORE PLANNED

Thirteen new houses of the 20 planned by J. P. Cullen at Ringold and Racine streets are nearing completion and will be ready for occupancy before winter. This marks another link in the plans for the city. The houses are directly opposite the colony of houses erected by the Modern Housing corporation which are now all occupied.

A new street running back a block from Racine street and parallel with Ringold street, has been made and on it ten houses have been built with the other three fronting on Racine street.

Ten of the houses are five room bungalows with a small porch running half way across the front and the living room extending across the other half and even with the porch. The different roofs used gives each bungalow an appearance of individuality from the exterior which is so much desired in building houses in wholesale lots. The houses have a living room, dining room, kitchen, bath and one large and one small bedroom and are furnace heated. Entrance to the kitchen and basement is made from a door at the side of the house instead of the back.

The other three houses so far built are two-story frame structures with eight rooms, modern in every way.

Military hop given by the "Great Em Rough Boys, Friday evening, Oct. 16th, Armory Hall. Admission $1.00 per couple. Good music. Ladies, 25c.

HEMINGWAY IS HEAD OF FARMERS

Janesville Man Elected President of Rock County Farm Bureau.

Hugh Hemmingway, Janesville, was last night elected president of the Rock County Farm Bureau at a meeting of the board of directors held in the court house. He fills the place left vacant by the resignation of George Hunt. Edward H. Parker, also of Janesville, was chosen for vice president.

Other officers re-elected were: treasurer, Alva Maxfield, Janesville; secretary, C. E. Culver, La Prairie; board of directors, C. O. Osgard, Orfordville; Edward H. Parker, C. E. Culver, D. A. McCarthy, Edgerton; Frank Arnold, Janesville; H. O. Narens, Clinton; and George Hull, Whitewater.

At the meeting M. O. Mount, Janesville attorney, explained the organization plan of the Rock County Farm Products company, which is the business organization of the farm bureau. The sale of stock in the company has been begun. All stockholders will meet Wednesday to decide on the outline of activity for the organization.

Miners Pad Accounts To Avoid Tax, Charge

Cannelton, Ind., Oct. 13.—"Many operating accounts of coal companies are padded for the purpose of avoiding the federal income tax," said Gov. James P. Goodrich of Indiana, in an address at a good roads meeting today, in discussing orders for the special coal and food coal prices in Indiana. He declared that if the mine operators of Indiana continue their refusal to furnish coal upon the order of the commission "all the facts in the possession of the commission will be given to the public."

The Canadian prairies are a blaze of color at midautumn from the peonies which grow luxuriantly in many sections of the country. In some sections they are cultivated in great quantities and shipped to the United States.

DEMOCRAT TO TALK ON LEAGUE IN OPEN MEETING TOMORROW

The League of Nations will be the subject of a lecture to be given by Solan Fieldman, New York, at the Corn Exchange at 8 o'clock tomorrow evening. He is on a speaking trip from New York to the Pacific coast under the auspices of the national democratic committee.

"No matter who is elected, we are bound to enter the League of Nations," says Mr. Fieldman. For 25 years he was one of the leaders of the Socialist party but withdrew because of what he terms its "radical and anti-social character."

He said he took the suits saying he was going to take them to Lake Nebagamon, where he and his family were to spend their vacation.

The report that Sallstad's clothing was packed in Miss Anderson's trunk, which she expressed to Duluth, is held to support the theory that Sallstad and the girl planned to go away together, and as tending to indicate possibilities that Sallstad is alive.

The girl was last seen at 10 o'clock on Aug. 27, when she called at the American express office at Duluth and had her trunk sent to the union station. The express clerk says she was nervous and excited. This was eight hours after which Sallstad is supposed to have perished.

SAILSTAD'S WIFE IDENTIFIES CLOTHES

Eau Claire, Oct. 13.—Three suits of clothes of the color and texture of those whose owner both of Chippewa Falls says he helped pack in Dorothy Anderson's trunk and traveling bag a day or two before Miss Anderson and E. J. Sallstad started on their auto trip to Duluth, were taken by Mr. Sallstad from his home here a day or so before, according to his widow, Mrs. Sallstad.

She said he took the suits saying he was going to take them to Lake Nebagamon, where he and his family were to spend their vacation.

KISSING OF BABIES IS WARNED AGAINST BY ST. LOUIS DOCTOR

St. Louis, Oct. 13.—Practically all persons, especially those in cities, are affected by tuberculosis germs before they reach middle age, according to Dr. T. C. Hempelmann, of St. Louis, who addressed the American Child Hygiene association at the concluding session of the eleventh annual convention here today. In childhood, he asserted, and largely by exposure to another individual suffering from the disease, or, in the artificially fed infant from infected milk supply.

The mortality rate, Dr. Hempelmann asserted, is "appallingly high," three of four children with the disease dying in their first year, and more than half between the ages of one and two years.

To provide against infection, he said, mothers should guard the milk supply and prevent promiscuous handling and kissing of the baby.

"An Old War Romance," from the pen of William J. Locke, is to be done for the screen. The picture has been retitled "The Song of the Soul" and stars Vivian Martin.

The Letters of Tessie and Joe

DEAR JOE:

Fred Sparks and May Dison dropped in last night for a chat, but when I realized the chat was consisting of them gazing into each other's eyes like two prodigal cats and calling each other engagement names, why I put a new jazz record on the talking machine for a breath of fresh air.

Well Joe, at that Fred and May got up and offered to show me some of the latest jazz steps. At least they called them jazz, but believe me Joe if you looked up the word "jazz" in the dictionary it wouldn't give you no idea of the complications those two went through. You know that little 2 by 3 rug in the parlor that we sometimes think may be real Turkish because the man that kept the rug store had such a peculiar dark complexion? Well anyway, Fred and May started to dance on that and when the record gave its dying gasp they were still on it and hadn't been "off" married, can you imagine that, Joe? Half the time they were just standing still as far as their feet were concerned, but otherwise flapping themselves like two flags waiting for a breeze.

Afterwards May asked me what I thought of it and I says to her, "Why, am I supposed to think of it?" I says, "I felt guilty enough just looking at it." And May says, "Oh Tessie," she says, "You're so slow you hardly know the war's over." And I says, "Well," I says, "I may be slow but I guess I'm speedy enough to move off a small Turkish rug once or twice in the course of a 12 inch record." There wasn't any need to leave her know there's any doubt about it being Turkish, was there, Joe?

Anyway, Joe, I don't know what dancing is coming to, or rather, to be more specific, I don't know where it has gone to, because it's certainly seemed to of disappeared in a mass of Swedish exercises.

I think it's awful about Charley Chaplin's wife accusing him of being a Bolshevik. A man with such beautiful eyes that we were told their secret look even in the midst of the worst accidents couldn't possibly be a Bolshevik and I got a good mind to write and tell her so.

Your loving,

Tessie.

Joe grows a bit sentimental tomorrow, and also has a word on the Italian situation.

Two-Skin Animal Scarfs Are Fashionable for Fall Wear

By ELOISE.

Have you noticed the great number of animal scarfs which are making their appearance with the new fall tricot suits and frocks? Nothing could be smarter nor more comfortable. They may be one or two-skin chokers with tiny beads, busy tails and soft little paws. The favorite fur is stone marten, but squirrel, mole, mink, beaver marten and kolinsky are also popular. There are many number of ways of wearing these little scarfs and there is nothing which adds such an air of complete finish to a costume as a smart little fur neckpiece. The one pictured is of stone marten, a two-skin scarf, with a pretty marking.

Here are a few hints for fur buyers. Muskrat is the most durable imitation fur. The thing to look for is the croaking or cracking of the dye. Ermine is usually not worth the price one has to pay, neither the pelt nor the fur are worth it and it is not becoming to all skins.

When buying kolinsky, look out for seams rips from dye. When well is sold as fox, the coarse black has been cut out. Feel for the outline of the fox shape and size.

Lynx is a soft, delicate, fluffy fur.

but no fluffy fur will stand hard usage and not lose its fluff.

When buying mink be sure, not only that it is mink, but that it has been trapped in season, in December and January, when the fur has a luster. Otherwise your mink may have to be dyed to match stripes and that will weaken the skin below.

There are two kinds of skunk, the black with his tail in the air, and the little civet striped skunk. The latter should never be a high priced skin.

I will give you other fur hints from time to time, for it is a vast subject and one which few people really know. It is hard to get good values without knowing.

French Officials Have to Sign Decree for Shoes

Paris.—The immense amount of detail which must require action by French statesmen is shown by the fact that the signatures of president, premier and finance minister are attached to a decree just published allowing a collector for the Official Journal 150 francs a year for shoes and other equipment. The minister of finance, M. Francis-Bourgeois, is charged with the execution of this decree. It has been busy in the office of an American loan, an international loan in France and in finishing his budget estimates for 1921.

PARIS WELL FAMED FERRIS WHEEL DOOMED

Paris.—The Ferris Wheel which has attracted much attention among foreign visitors in Paris for the past 20 years, but which according to landscape artists and architects has been a degradation of the artistic horizon of Paris, is doomed. The work of demolishing the wheel is to be started in a few days. It was built at the time of the Paris Exposition in 1900 is more than 300 feet in diameter and contains several million pounds of steel which will be used in reconstruction of the devastated regions.

Ocala.—Mrs. Freda Kretzsch, employed as a saleswoman, had her nose nearly severed from her face when the car in which she was riding with two companions, left the road and landed in the ditch, turning over. A piece of glass from the wind shield struck her on the face.

Fond du Lac.—Thomas Kelley was found dead in his automobile across from the cottages at Le Lac de Neveau, four miles from here. The body was found by persons on an outing. Death was due to heart disease and came as he was riding, it is believed.

Household Hints

MENU HINT

Orange Halves. Cinnamon Toast. Cereal. Coffee.

Luncheon. Baked Stuffed Tomatoes. Hot Biscuits and Honey. 3-P Salad.

Liver with Tomato Sauce. Buttered Potatoes. Harvard Beets. Peach Short Cake.

RECIPES FOR A DAY

Three-P Salad.—Arrange two halves of stewed pears on lettuce leaf. Garnish with shredded pineapple and chopped peanuts. Serve with mayonnaise on a fruit dressing made as follows: Thicken pineapple juice with egg and thin with cream or whipped cream.

Stuffed Tomatoes.—Take large tomatoes, slice into an upper and lower half, scoop out pulp, salt, then moisten with water and seasoned with trace of onion and finely chopped pepper. Round nicely on top. Bake in same oven with shortcake and biscuits. Garnish with parsley and serve with thickened sauce, using half milk and half meat stock and season with oil and salt.

Liver and Tomato Sauce.—For this dish liver seems to be even more appetizing than calf's liver. This is a delicious way of using a cut of meat costing about one-half as much as other cuts—a cut few people appreciate. Cut three slices of liver in small pieces and fry out the excess fat from skillet. Remove tough portions from liver and cut into serving size pieces, place in hot fat and season plentifully. (This is essential.) Fry 15 to 20 minutes, before serving remove liver to platter, add to juices in skillet one cup of leftover macaroni and cheese and the bacon. If sauce does not thicken slightly or boil down enough thicken with flour.

Peach Shortcake.—Cream one-quarter cup butter substitute and one cup sugar, add one egg, cup milk, two and one-half cups flour, two teaspoons baking powder. Bake in deep pie in fifteen minutes. Split, butter thinly, spread with sliced peaches, either fresh or canned. You can utilize the poorer peaches which could not be canned in perfect halves.

CANNING AND PRESERVING. Pickled Peaches.—Ten pounds peaches (peeled), four pounds sugar, one quart best cider vinegar. Boil sugar, vinegar and one tablespoon allspice; one tablespoon mace, one tablespoon cloves (ground). Put all the spices in a muslin bag and boil in the peels peaches and boil for twenty minutes. Remove peaches from syrup and place on platters to cool. When cool place on sterilized jars.

and pour boiling syrup over them and seal. Will keep for years this way.

Canned Sliced Peaches.—Fill jars with sliced peaches and cover with syrup. To three quarts of water add four quarts of sugar. Boil syrup five minutes. Do not fasten covers securely. Put in any deep kettle or boiler, placing cloths in bottom and around cans. Cover kettle, and when boiling, boil fifteen minutes, remove from kettle and fasten caps on tightly.

Peach Butter.—Slice peaches (peeled). To each cup of peaches add a good one-half cup of sugar. Boil until thick, stirring carefully, as it will burn quickly when it gets thick. Heart and Home Problems

BY ELIZABETH THOMPSON Letters May be Addressed to Mrs. Thompson, in Care of the Gazette

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am so discouraged. Three years ago, when my husband and I got married, we were making a good salary and that it would be easy for us to get along. He had not much money, but we were married the last of the year and he had a good job. We were married the last of the year and he had a good job. We were married the last of the year and he had a good job.

My husband is conscientious and accurate. He is highly valued where he works. I mean confidence is placed in what he does, but they do not pay him a salary which would enable us to own a home of our own or raise a family. If I were in his place it seems to me I would put up more of a fight, but he is not. He feels so strongly that he is right that he expects the case to be self-evident and he will not insist or argue.

Would like to leave him quit and look for another job, but if he did we would have nothing to live on in the meantime. I would not like to help him for awhile, but he says he can stand anything but that. His work is so confining that he has no chance to talk to other people or concerns during business hours.

Would you advise him to stay where he is or to quit and then hunt for a job?

Right now I would advise your husband to stay where he is until the times become more settled. There are times when it is easy to get a job, but right now an uncertainty hangs over the country which makes the wise man hang on to a sure thing. You have not mentioned your husband's kind of work. Doubtless there are magazines concerning this line. If he follows the "Want Ad" section he will be very apt to find some job which appeals to him. He can answer them by letter and in that way may be able to locate elsewhere at the price he wants.

There are many men like your husband. They are good workmen, but there is something in their nature which makes it impossible for them to demand or fight. Industry has crushed the spirit of many a valuable employee. The employer is blind to the character of the men and thinks he is easy, not realizing that by denying him fair play his originality and capacity for excellent work is lowered.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am tall and slender and considered good looking. I am having a dress made and want a round neck. My dressmaker says I would look better in a V-neck. I am especially partial to the round style. What do you think?

BEAUTY. A round-faced person wears a round neck well, while with a long, slender or thin face the V-neck is much more becoming.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am confined in the house with a sprained ankle. A friend of mine in another town sent me flowers. Should I write and thank him or wait until I see him?

Write and thank him at once.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: We are two MRS. MCADOO IS SNAPPED AT FAIR

I am sorry, but cowboys have not ranked among my correspondents. I believe you will find it more satisfactory to your friends in Colorado.

ELEPHANT SCHOOL.

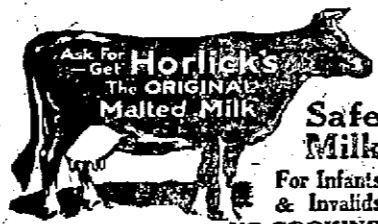

One might think that it would be a very hard matter to teach tricks to even good conduct to an elephant. He is clumsy, and so big, and naturally think he is stupid. But elephant trainers tell us something quite different from that. They say that if the animal is treated gently, and only one thing at a time taught to him, he learns as promptly and certainly as do other animals.

Elephants are trained in a real school. The trainers bring a number of them into a big inclosure. Then a trainer picks out one of the smartest elephants and takes him into the center of the ring, where all the others can watch him. He is then put through a series of acts, very slowly, so that the attentive watchers may see what is wanted of them.

After the lesson is over a large lot of fresh bread is given to the pupils. Bread is a delicacy to an elephant, and he is sent out to play. Then the other elephants are called, and each one seems to understand what the first one did, probably because he wants the bread, or taught to him, because after looking on at the first elephant certain acts seem natural. After all have been tried in the same careful way the elephants are separated and each one that has done well gets a lot of bread.

MAKES GLASS OF RICE HUSKS. Experiments have been carried out in Burma with the idea of utilizing the silica content of paddy, rice husks, in the manufacture of glass. On burning the husks about 18 per cent of white ash is obtained, and although this ash contains small quantities of iron, it has been proven to be suitable for the manufacture of glass having a pale green or yellow color. In burning the husks sufficient heat is generated to carry out the various processes.

The wage demand made by workers of the New York Transfer companies is six times as much as the net earnings of the companies in the last year.

It was nearly sundown when the trail he followed swerved to the right up a steep bank, where the ponies' hoofs slipped in their little to the buckskin his head, and the game little went scrambling up, until they came forth on a flat place above. Shelby gave a gasp, and climbed to a higher point of rock, lying concealed behind its summit, while he swept the scene below through the field glasses. He never had been there before, yet he knew about where he was; this must be Dragon creek, and not far below above the falls. He had heard of it, and had heard of a famous hiding place for cattle thieves and border outlaws. These fellows evidently were heading for the falls, but would they try to complete the journey? His hope centered on their camping somewhere until morning, if sufficiently assured of safety this would probably be their choice. Through the field glasses he studied the course of the stream, and the little patches of wood land. At last he saw a faint, faint spot of blue smoke arose above some distant trees, the evidence of a campfire. He lay there motionless, waiting for the action, and waiting for the night.

As the gloom slowly deepened Shelby was able to see the fire, but the distance was too great to permit any knowledge of its surroundings. The trail leading down was narrow, and rocky, and he determined to try the passage while a faint glimmer of twilight yet lingered. Leading the buckskin, and moving with the

of Indigestion

A Host of People Seem to Thrive on What Used to Provoke Indigestion Before They Learned of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.

When the stomach becomes sour, with gasiness and heartburn due to indigestion or dyspepsia, relief may be had by one or two Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. Simply chew them, no hot water nor any other fillers for a stomach perhaps already too much overworked.

These tablets supply to the stomach the alkaline effect which is the relief of the sour condition. They also contain pancreatin to help digest the starchy foods such as potatoes, rice, oatmeal, white flour, etc.

The fact that these tablets are on sale everywhere in the U. S. and Canada shows how generally recognized they are as an efficient aid when the dyspeptic stomach needs a little help.

Mabel McKinley—Niece of the Late President of the United States—Takes Nuxated Iron for Health and Strength

And Says She Regards It as The Ideal Tonic For All Weak, Run-Down Nervous Women

Dr. George H. Baker, Formerly Physician and Surgeon Monmouth Memorial Hospital, New Jersey, Explains Why Iron Is One of the GREAT-EST OF ALL REMEDIES FOR WEAK BUILDERS.

Says: "I have found nothing in his experience so effective for helping to make strong, healthy, red blooded women as Nuxated Iron."

Every woman who wishes to possess health, strength and beauty, should carefully read the statement of Miss McKinley who, after her long use of Nuxated Iron, has obtained the following results:

"Miss McKinley says: 'While I had often heard of Nuxated Iron, I did not know of its remarkable value for building up the system. I was suffering from the most distressing weakness and nervousness, and my own family physician had recommended that I give a fair trial to Nuxated Iron. After a few days the weakness and nervousness from which I suffered began to be replaced by a feeling of renewed strength and vitality. In less than three weeks my whole system was fighting with energy and power, and I was able to do my usual work with ease and comfort. I am now a healthy, strong, and beautiful woman, and I am convinced that Nuxated Iron is the ideal tonic for all weak, run-down women. As a strength, health, and blood-builder, I am convinced that Nuxated Iron has no equal.'"

In commenting on Miss McKinley's statement, Dr. George H. Baker, formerly Physician and Surgeon Monmouth Memorial Hospital, New Jersey, says: 'It is my opinion that Nuxated Iron is the ideal tonic for all weak, run-down women. As a strength, health, and blood-builder, I am convinced that Nuxated Iron has no equal.'"

RUSSIAN SOVIET WILL NOT BE CONTENT TO REST IN DEFEAT

Berlin.—Close observers of the Russo-Polish situation say the Russian army will not content itself with defeat, but will either begin a counter-offensive this winter or launch a fresh campaign in the spring.

An American army officer who toured Poland from Warsaw to Lodz and then visited the Russian internment camps of East Prussia said he found virtual unanimity of opinion among Poles, French, and Germans that the Russians would not give up their ambition to conquer Poland without further fighting.

A French officer serving in Poland told the correspondent he believed the Russians would come back in the spring, and that he would be ordered to invade Poland then they were this summer.

A Polish officer, graduate of an American university and serving with General Joseph Haller's army, declared he believed, and this belief prevailed among Polish officers, that the Russians were badly beaten but would be able to reorganize and prepare for another campaign within six months. A number of German officers who held the opinion that Poland cannot endure as a nation, soon would begin a counter-offensive.

The American officer said information he had gathered led him to believe the Russians would renew the fighting early this winter. Through an interpreter he learned the attitude of the Cossacks interned in East Prussia.

"Strangely enough these Cossacks say they are not bolsheviks and that they are not fighting for bolshevism but for Russia against the Poles. They appear to be in excellent condition and well equipped. Most of them were young fellows apparently between 25 and 30; bronzed, healthy, and strapping. On the whole they showed to much better advantage than the Polish soldiers."

Rheumatism's Pains Will Soon Begin

But You Can Do Much to Head Them Off.

So many people dread to see the fading of summer, for to those afflicted with Rheumatism it means that the comfort they have enjoyed during the warm season is soon to give way to the pains and pangs of this disease of torture.

Warm weather seems to render the germs of Rheumatism inactive and harmless—but soon they will arouse and renew their furious attacks with all of their old-time vigor.

Are you quite sure that you have ever treated your Rheumatism in an intelligent manner? Doubtless you have tried remedies by the score because the pains are always increasing in severity and are a source of constant suffering. But just here is where you make your mistake, as others have done by the thousands.

Just because your Rheumatism causes so much pain and discomfort you feel that the proper way to treat the disease is to endeavor to get rid of its pains. So you rush for the liniment bottle and begin to rub and rub in a frantic effort to relieve your suffering. And at times, possibly, you get some slight relief.

But did you ever know of anyone ever ridding themselves of this painful disease by the use of liniments or other local treatment?

A disease that can cause so much suffering is not confined to the surface of the skin, and cannot be successfully treated by local remedies. You have but to look around you at the numerous helpless victims of Rheumatism to confirm this statement. Ask any of them and they will tell you that no matter how much liniment they use, each season again finds them in the grip of the disease.

Do you want to have the same experience? Or are you willing to take advantage of a treatment that has been successfully used by many victims?

Many cases of Rheumatism are due to a tiny germ in the blood, which multiplies by the million and carries its pains to different parts of the body. Such cases must be treated through the blood, and the disease germs eradicated before the disease can be conquered.

But did you ever know of anyone ever ridding themselves of this painful disease by the use of liniments or other local treatment?

A disease that can cause so much suffering is not confined to the surface of the skin, and cannot be successfully treated by local remedies. You have but to look around you at the numerous helpless victims of Rheumatism to confirm this statement. Ask any of them and they will tell you that no matter how much liniment they use, each season again finds them in the grip of the disease.

Do you want to have the same experience? Or are you willing to take advantage of a treatment that has been successfully used by many victims?

Many cases of Rheumatism are due to a tiny germ in the blood, which multiplies by the million and carries its pains to different parts of the body. Such cases must be treated through the blood, and the disease germs eradicated before the disease can be conquered.

Jersey City, N. J., Oct. 13.—George Carpentier, European heavyweight champion, knocked out American light heavyweight champion, Tuesday night in the fourth round of their scheduled fight. The battle before a night crowd of more than fifteen thousand in the Jersey City baseball park.

The finish came one minute after the second round of the fight. Carpentier, a bone crushing right to the jaw, one of a series of frantic rights and lefts which Carpentier threw at the champion, sent the American, Levinsky, crashing through the ropes. Referee Harry Little stopped quickly between the two combatants.

Carpentier, a natural distance as he bent down and started the count which meant pugilistic oblivion for Levinsky, and enhanced his victory by a nod to the crowd for the world's heavyweight title for Carpentier.

Windsor, Ont., Oct. 13.—Samuel D. Riddle's incomparable 3 year old Man o' War, was crowned champion thoroughbred of the continent Tuesday afternoon, when he scored a ridiculously easy victory over Commander J. K. L. Ross' great 4 year old, Sir Barton, in their $75,000 race at Kenilworth. While a crowd of fifty thousand persons looked on in amazement at the tremendous speed and power of the great colt, Man o' War led home his Silver Slipper by seven lengths, and having led all the way after the first sixty yards of the contest. He actually galloped the Ross colt home, and he was not even out of breath as easily in the final quarter of a mile that he was never fully extended. The result showed quite clearly that Sir Barton was no match for the son of Rivalry.

The distance was covered in 2:07 which did not closely approach the world's record held by the Canadian-made colt, made at Belmont park in 1918, and did not even equal the Canadian record of 2:02 4-4.

Cleveland, Oct. 3.—One o' th' most wonderful things about th' current World's series is that a even twenty-five thousand people attend every game. It's remarkable, too, when we consider th' population o' th' country, which is somethin' like 106,000,000. Now then let us see why they're so interested in 1928 season o' our entire population. I'm lovin' five t' a family an seven families t' th' neighborhood, it would mean that one representative from each neighborhood would show up at each game o' th' series. Of course, it may happen that as high as three, or possibly more people from some neighborhoods will come. As an instance take Linsdale, a suburb o' Cleveland, where it is positively known that 180 o' its citizens attended the first game. Sure! They've been out our attention that th' gambler scandal would only stimulate th' receipts o' th' series as many doubtless intended hopin' to catch their first glimpse o' a game. It was hinted about sportin' headquarters early t'day that Munnager "Robby" would likely send either Cadore o' Marquette, or Grimes, or Miller, or Mitchell, or Pfeffer, or Mohart t' th' mound t'day t' face th' Indian sluggers. It wuz also added that there is a possibility that he may, as the game progresses decide t' give each one o' his hurlers a chance t' pitch. He has already pitched some quarters that he might decline at th' last minute t' pitch himself. It is rumored by those who know him he'll manage th' lot t' all depend on th' results. Only "Dodge" manager looks worn an haggard although he walked t' his dugout unaided t'day. An spoke a number o' times t' his position. I saw a game may tell th' tale, he shows no signs o' weakening an greeted those about him in his usual jovial manner. Those who are in the position to hear th' pitchers' pitches isn't reconciled an "it welcome" the end. It cannot be denied that th' Brooklyn pitche'n can't understand th' position. The situation, but th' game kin be said o' Duprez an' Benedicts minstreis. As a well known an widely read sporting man said today, "I wish you could see it." We'd never heard that before, but we think there's a good deal in it. Enerochain' ag'il me nussid wuz all th' pitchers wuz born t' 1889 an' 1892.

SAD MEMORY
When we two parted months ago,
So proud and cold, I thought that I'd think of you again and so
You went from out my life forever Forever? No! How things ma-change,
Our best laid plans go all a-glimmer, Held by some power, strong and strange
Your presence simply won't grow dinner.

St. Paul, Oct. 13.—St. Paul American association baseball champions, the Baltimore Orioles, winner of the International league flag, met here today in the fifth game of the "Junior World Series."

Undaunted by their three defeats and only one victory at Baltimore, the Saints were determined to win for the first time the series on their home grounds. Manager Mike Kelley said. The Orioles need only two more successes and Jack Dunn, manager, was confident his team would take two straight.

Cleveland, Oct. 12.—Figures for this year's World's Series given out today by John E. Bruce, secretary of the National commission, show that neither the attendance or the gate receipts were as great as last year's contests. The approximate figures for 1919 and 1920 follow:

| | | |
|--|------|------|
| | 1920 | 1919 |
|--|------|------|

| | | |
|---|-----------|----------|
| Total attendance | 78,737 | $26,921 |
| Total receipts | 17,301 | $722.11 |
| National commission's share | $56,480 | $72.24 |
| Each club's share | $146,718 | $369.82 |
| Players' share | | |
| (from first 5 games) | $214,932 | $260.34 |
| Winning team's share | $6,997 | $117.15 |
| Losing team's share | $4,646 | $78.10 |
| Each winning player's share | $4,204 | $4.88 |
| Each losing player's share | $2,382 | $3.25 |
| Purse for second and third place teams of each league | $63.770 | $65.09 | and club officials lost at least $100,000 because the series did not get nine games, as the Brooklyn club had readied to hold debates to that amount for the unemployed contests and will have to refund the money.

Only in 1911, 1912, 1917 and 1918 were the attendance figures for the series exceeded, while only in 1912 were the receipts greater than this year.

The seventeen World's Series have been played in modern baseball and the total attendance was 2,431,573. The total receipts were $4,766,935.

HEARD IN NEW ENGLAND.
Many primitive New England sayings are restricted wholly to the agricultural population, and among these are utterances whose provincialism is not apparent to the speaker whose ear has become familiar to them. "G

"out" is commonly used to express incredulity and in remote districts "d tell" is still good form in the 'be circles.

Values--

$38.00 and $45.00

We are featuring the biggest values ever offered at this time of the year by any clothing house in the two above prices.

These suits and overcoats are worth much more than $38.50 and $45. They would command more money anywhere, but these are unusual times and unusual methods are necessary.

Look where you will you cannot find more extreme values than these.

The best lines of clothing made are represented. The style and quality of the workmanship is the best. Surely you will avail yourself of this opportunity to buy clothing at low prices.

Other extra special suit and overcoat values are $35, $40, $50, $55 and $60.
